Actors' Playhouse Presents "Carousel" & Lunch On Your Own

Wednesday, February 8, 2017

Bus Leaves: 10:45 AM

Lunch On Your Own: 12 Noon – 1:30 PM

Showtime: 2 PM

Enjoy lunch on your own at one of the fine restaurants near the theater. A list of suggested restaurants will be provided.

This Tony Award-winning Broadway musical is a powerful ride of hope and tears and as close to perfection as musical theater gets. With stunning choreography and breathtaking music, Carousel was dubbed "the best musical of the 20th Century" by Time Magazine. From the magical evocation of "The Carousel Waltz" to the majestic and moving strains of the immortal song "You'll Never Walk Alone," this giant of the musical stage remains timeless and star bright. The poignant and heartbreaking story of the faithful Julie and her brutish husband Billy is one of the most powerful books in musical theater history and perfectly matches its extraordinary score with the memorable songs "If I Loved You" and "June is Bustin' Out All Over".

The Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts Presents The Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater

Saturday, February 25, 2017

Bus Leaves: 1 PM

Showtime: 2 PM

Alvin Ailey once declared, "I want to hold up a mirror to my audience that says, 'This is the way people can be; this is how open people can be.'" Now more than ever, we need the power of dance to bring us together, connected by our common humanity. It's why people say: You don't just see an Ailey performance, you feel it. Engage your emotions at an Ailey performance that includes their latest acclaimed premieres and Mr. Ailey's Revelations, an enduring masterpiece that transcends color and creed to unite us in hope. Artistic Director Robert Battle, who is only the third person to head the Company, began his journey to the top of the modern dance world in the Liberty City neighborhood of Miami.

Lunch On Your Own at Joe's Stone Crab

Tuesday, March 14, 2017

Bus Leaves: 10:45 AM

Lunch: 11:45 AM

Time On Your Own Until: 3:30 PM

Plan an exciting lunch trip dining at Joe's Stone Crab, a Miami Beach landmark restaurant since 1913. Some restrictions apply including:

- Dining accommodations are restricted to 4-6 people per table.
- The Restaurant has agreed to allow up to 4 individual checks per table only.
- The price of the trip does not include lunch. Every party is responsible for their own dining check(s).

After lunch enjoy sightseeing at your leisure! Suggested attractions:

- Jewish Museum of Florida – FIU
(located 3 blocks north of Joe's Stone Crab)

Museum admission is $5.00

Exhibit: Stitching History from the Holocaust

Prague 1939: A True Story of Talent Lost

Paul and Hedy Strnad are trapped as the Nazis close in. Can Hedy's dress designs and their cousin in Milwaukee help them get to the United States? All efforts failed. Hedy and Paul perished in the Holocaust, but their memory lives on in the letter and sketches which form the core of this haunting exhibit. Come and experience Hedy's designs brought to life. As the New York Times review of this award-winning exhibit states, "The fashions are both text and textile, a story of life and death told in fabric." An original exhibit created by and on loan from Jewish Museum Milwaukee.

- South Pointe Park
(located 1 block south of Joe's Stone Crab)

Get the camera ready! With panoramic views of Biscayne Bay, Fisher Island, downtown Miami and the Atlantic Ocean, watch passing cruise and cargo ships while relaxing in the quiet serenity of this beautiful location which includes the colorful Obsolete Lighthouse by artist Tobias Rehberger.

Dance/Fitness

Body Sculpting

This class is a cross between Tai-Chi, Yoga, Pilates, and Martial Arts. Body Sculpting requires specific muscle contraction and control, and is similar to power yoga in its use of pose, concentration and balance. "Sculpting" focuses on deep breathing, low heart rate, low impact, hydration and basic movement.
