The City of Aventura Accepts Applications for the Community Services Advisory Board

Aventura, Florida ...

The City of Aventura will be accepting applications for member positions available on the Community Services Advisory Board through Wednesday, December 21, 2016. Applications are available to Aventura residents with interest and/or experience in beautification projects, special events, youth and/or senior citizen programs, and recreation activities.

The Board consists of seven members appointed by the Mayor and approved by the City Commission and provides advice as well as recommendations to the Commission and staff. The Board stimulates greater public awareness and encourages community participation in beautification projects and go green initiatives by establishing recognition programs; reviews and provides input on special events, recreation activities, programs, and the shuttle bus services; acts as the City's Tree Board for the Tree City USA requirements; and other matters assigned by the City Commission and City Manager.

Potential board members must be registered voters who have resided in the City of Aventura for six (6) months immediately prior to an appointment to the Board.

The application is available online at cityofaventura.com. Completed applications and resumes can be faxed to 305-466-8919; emailed to sorokae@cityofaventura.com; or mailed to Office of the City Manager at 19200 West Country Club Drive, Aventura, FL 33180.
